Hearing of Citizens and Taxpayers

Carl Archacki said that CREATE has had a great response to the fundraiser for the bridge flower boxes. They will also be at the National Night Out Event.

Nancy Hanks said that the Firemen’s Carnival went well and they had a great turn out.

Unfinished Business

Delores Hale provided an update to the Active Aging project on Canfield Street. She said that the permitting process was going well. The demolition is on schedule to be completed this year with construction to start in the Spring.

Hale said the playground project is scheduled to begin the second week of October. Hilltop Tree Service has agreed to take down the trees as part of the in kind work. The Borough will begin removing the old playground equipment and recycle that. Any funds received will be put back into the playground project.

Brian Harmon reported on issues with some of the youth in the community causing problems.

Pude said that when residents see things happening they need to report it to the Police Department immediately, otherwise, nothing will get done.

Jeremy Ball asked if we could possibly start a Neighborhood Watch Program within the Borough.
