New and Other Business

1. Delores Hale and Randy Gorske gave an update on the meeting with the Northwestern REC and McClure Placemaking. The group toured the Hermitage House building as well as the former Springs Manor and discussed various ways to use the space in those buildings. They also met with Zack Norwood from the Crawford County Planning Office.

Brian Harmon reported that all of the flower boxes that are placed around town each year have been "adopted" by various residents, businesses and organization. They have agreed to maintain the flowers throughout the summer.

Brian also said because Mugs & Muggles and Hello Beautiful Boutique have closed there won't be a kids zone during the Music Festival this year. He would like to see if that can still be provided for the kids.
