Hearing of Citizens and Taxpayers

David Kuchorski of 113 Glenn Avenue asked for an update on the storm water issue at his house.

Pude said the Engineers were out to take elevations of the area. They will let us know what the best option will be to solve the issue of the storm water eroding the bank along Jackson Run.

Kuchorski also asked why the previous owners of a property on South Main Street were allowed to build their garage so close to his property.

Pude said she would have to check the Zoning records to see if they were issued a permit and if they needed a variance before they were allowed to build.

Unfinished Business – None
